4. A second elective course. If not chosen from the above list, the student must present a course description and syllabus to the Program in Translation and Interpreting Studies, demonstrating the course's direct relevance to the field of Translation & Interpreting Studies. Generally, language courses will not be approved for elective credit. (3-4 hours*)

*Certificate students who may be interested in applying for the MA in Translation & Interpreting may choose to enroll in the Graduate sections of the 400-level certificate courses, which earn 4 hours of credit each. If a student who has completed or is completing the undergraduate certificate is accepted to the MA program, up to 12 hours of credit from certificate coursework may transfer to the MA, providing that

- a) the course credit has not previously been applied toward a degree or other transcribed credential; and
- 2) the credit transferred represents graded graduate level course work; and
- 3) that student has earned a grade of B or better in the course.
